

Transfer in Ohio – It's more than you think!

The Ohio Articulation and Transfer Network facilitates transfer and college credit opportunities for Ohioans enrolling at public colleges and universities. Opportunities include:

- Previous college coursework
- High school and Adult career-technical education programs
- Industry recognized credentials
- Military training
- Proficiency exams

All this adds up to better pipelines to upskill the workforce

What are ITAGs and CTAGs?

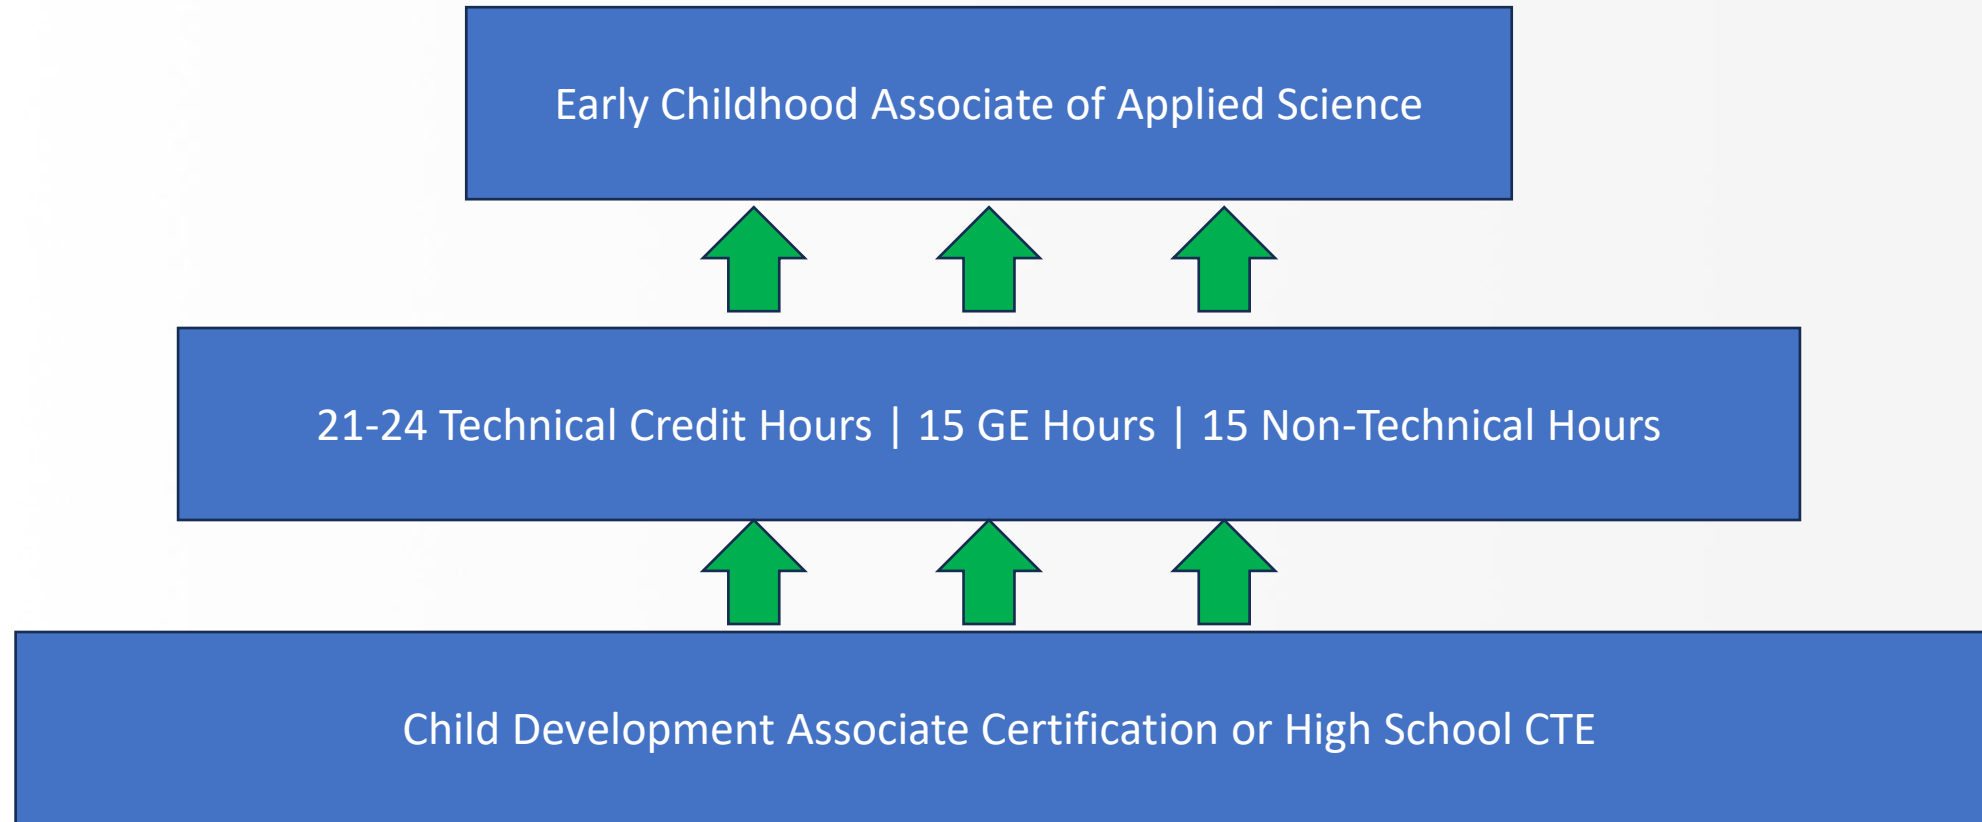

ITAGs are a state transfer initiative that guarantees college credit to individuals who have earned an industry-recognized credential.

CTAGs are a state transfer initiative that guarantees college credit to individuals who have completed approved high school CTE courses.

- Certifications and high school standards are aligned to college coursework by faculty and are endorsed by the state.
- Students can receive college credit at any of Ohio's 35 public colleges or universities offering similar courses.
